Re: Burglary Arrest

On December 13, 2016, James Palumbo, age 25 of East Haven, was taken into custody at the Woodbridge Police Department on an outstanding criminal arrest warrant. Palumbo's arrest stemmed from a May, 2016 burglary of a local restaurant. Through forensic evidence gathered at the scene, members of the Woodbridge Police Department's Investigative Services Unit were able to obtain evidence linking Palumbo to the crime. Palumbo was charged with 53a-103 Burglary 3rd Degree, 53a-116 Criminal Mischief 2nd Degree, and 53a-125 Larceny 4th Degree. He was unable to post his $10,000 bond and was transported directly to New Haven Superior Court for his arraignment on December 13, 2016.

Arrestee: James Palumbo, age 25 of 73 Sorrento Avenue, East Haven, CT
