Proposals for the Former-Country Club Property

Since I began my term in office as First Selectman in July 2017, among my top priorities has been to work diligently, together with my fellow members of the Board of Selectmen, to explore and bring to the residents of Woodbridge a viable plan for the future of the former-Country Club property.

As you know, this approximately 150-acre parcel was purchased by the Town in 2009 and has been the focus of considerable efforts over the years to determine the best path forward. I authorized a Public Opinion Survey in January-February 2018 to ask residents to provide their thoughts, and this information has been helpful as the Board of Selectmen evaluates various options.

With this in mind, the Board of Selectmen is considering proposals for the best use of the property and at a Special BOS Meeting on November 28, the Board heard presentations from two developers who are interested in purchasing part of the parcel for development of Senior Housing (over 55 years of age). One option was from Insite Development and Woodbridge resident Brian St. Pierre, and the other proposal was from the developer of Fieldstone Village on Rt. 34 in Orange, Robert Sachs.

After the two presentations, questions from the Board were answered by the developers. The Board then moved into Executive Session to discuss negotiations regarding these offers. We will continue negotiations with a goal of having further details available to the public prior to a Public Information Session where the public may see each option presented and have the opportunity to ask questions and receive answers.

Public Information Session

Monday, December 17, 2018 at 7 pm in The Center Gym

Immediately upon the conclusion of the December 17 Public Information Session, we will hold a Special Board of Selectmen meeting so the Selectmen can decide whether to set a date for a Special Town Meeting and Referendum on one of the options. As I have stated several times before, any proposal for the sale of former-Country Club property will ultimately be decided by you, the voters.

All the presentation material from the November 28 meeting is available at the Woodbridge Town website. Please visit WoodbridgeCT.org/496/Current-Issues-Projects to review this material, and follow the link to the YouTube video of the meeting, or watch the meeting on cable channel 79.

I have sent out an email with links to this information. If you have not received my email, please sign up for my messages at: tinyurl.com/WoodbridgeEnews

I will continue to keep the public informed of next steps. If we decide to proceed to a Special Town Meeting and Referendum, a written notice will be mailed to every household. As always, please be in touch if you would like to share your thoughts with me!

– First Selectman Beth Heller

Woodbridge Community Council Events Promote Diversity and Inclusion

Explore and celebrate diversity at three events this winter organized by the Town's ad hoc Community Council. The first is intended to help children discuss and value diversity; the later events are for adults.

On Martin Luther King Jr. Day (Mon., Jan. 21) from 10 am - 12 pm, the JCC is hosting a free event for students grades K-3 and their families. The authors of Soulful Sydney, Terry Murphy and Mariam Azeez, will be on hand to read from and discuss their book. The book is a heartwarming children's story about Sydney who meets the girl next door. Together they set off in search of lessons of kindness and acceptance. In addition to the story, students are invited to make a craft that will be donated to spread the kindness forward. The event is free and families are asked to preregister at jccnh.org. The book may be pre-ordered for a discounted rate of $8. Books will also be available for purchase at the event for $12. It is not required to purchase a book in order to attend the event. For more information about the book Soulful Sydney and the authors, please visit soulfulsydney.com.

In February the Community Council will host a book discussion about Ta-Nahesi Coates' book, Between the World and Me, on Feb. 26 and the movie I Am Not Your Negro will play on Feb. 28. Details about the two February events will be available on the Town website in the coming months.

"Choices for Sustainable Living" Course

Book Clubs: Library Offers Book Sets and More

Fiction and nonfiction sets are available, with best-selling titles such as Animal, Vegetable, Miracle; The Address; When Breath Becomes Air; and Pachinko. Most are available in regular print, large print and audio. The full list is on our website and holds can be placed.

If the library does not own enough copies of a set for a particular book club, additional copies can be ordered from both the LION consortium and libraries around the state. Additionally, if a book club is reading a title that is not a library-owned set, multiple copy/multiple format requests can also be placed. Please stop by the Information Desk with questions, call 203-389-3434, or email wbrstaff@lioninc.org.

The Adult Services Department recently relocated the large collection of book club sets owned by the library from the Reference Office to shelving in the middle of the stacks. What was once accessible only to staff can now be browsed and borrowed by the entire community. Stop in and take a copy for yourself, you and a friend, or your entire book club! The titles have been read and enjoyed by the library's own book club, and have been loaned to library book clubs throughout Connecticut.
